IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH

JAMES ARNETT,

Plaintiff,

v.

BENJAMIN SNOW HOWARD;
LIFELINE MEDIA LLC, a Utah
entity; NATIONWIDE AFFORDABLE
HOUSNG, a Texas corporation; and the
BEN HOWARD TRUST, an Idaho trust,

Defendants.

MOTION FOR LEAVE

Judge Ted Stewart

Case No.: 2:13-cv-00591-TS

Plaintiff James Arnett, representing himself Pro Se, comes now before the United States District Court for the District of Utah with this Civil Case, transferred and formerly filed as 4:12-CV-000311-DCB-DTF-TUC.

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO AMEND

Plaintiff Arnett respectfully requests that this honorable Court grant him sufficient and appropriate time for leave, of at least 45 days, for the purpose of both, seeking legal representation, and; to Amend his Complaint concurrently (either by and through an attorney or Pro Se), as provided under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a), for the proposed additions, as follows:

PROPOSED ADDITIONS

1. The addition of a Claim: "Fraudulent Inducement To Enter Into An Oral Agreement";
2. The addition of a Claim: "Unjust Enrichment";
3. The addition of a Claim: "Copyright Infringement";
4. The addition of allegations and supporting prima facie evidence;
5. The addition of supporting video prima facie evidence on DVD.

NOTICE

Defendant Lifeline Media LLC. is a UTAH entity - NOT a Texas entity, as it currently appears on the cover of Defendants' filings.

Respectfully submitted this 30th day of July 2013.
